

Widening Our Circle of Compassion: Human Nature and the Need for Social Connection

John T. Cacioppo, Ph.D.

Director, Center for Cognitive and Social Neuroscience, The University of Chicago

Wednesday, April 21, 2010 7:00 pm

Gaffney Auditorium, New Trier H.S., 385 Winnetka Ave., Winnetka

Sponsored by a broad community partnership,
Dr. Cacioppo, founder of the field of social neuroscience, and a world expert on social isolation, both perceived and real,
will explain our powerful, meaning-making "social brains."

*If you want to go fast, go alone.
If you want to go far, go together.*
- African proverb

make it better
north shore — family, community and you

Discussion groups!
Thursday, April 22, 1:00 and 7:00 pm
Winnetka Community House
620 Lincoln, Winnetka
Register at fan-ntts.org